About Susan G. Komen Inland Empire:

Nancy G. Brinker promised her dying sister, Susan G. Komen, she would do everything in her power to end breast cancer forever. In 1982, that promise became Susan G. Komen® and launched the global breast cancer movement. Today, Komen for the Cure is the world's largest grassroots network of breast cancer survivors and activists fighting to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all and energize science to find the cures. Through events like the Susan G. Komen® Inland Empire Race for the Cure, the Susan G. Komen Inland Empire has invested more than $6.4 million in community breast health programs in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties. Seventy five percent of net proceeds generated by the Affiliate stays in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties. The remaining funds go to the national Susan G. Komen for the Cure Grants Program to fund research. For more information visit www.komenie.org.
